

I am the oldest of thirteen children seven girls and six boys three of us girls have had breast cancer and one sister had colon cancer, unfortunately she passed away. None of our brothers have had it. My father had colon cancer but did not die from it. I feel that it is important for individuals to encourage all of their family members to get checked regularly. Cancer is a terrible disease but it makes a difference when we know that God is in control.

Geraldine Dowe